A Mystery of One of the Hotels.

The hotel hermit is a distinct creation. I have one in view now. He has lived for sixteen years at one of the most prominent of the Broadway hotels, and in that time it is doubtful if he has been away from the house more than ten consecutive hours. He is a heavy-jawed, red-faced creature, with sluggish eyes, ponderous belly and lazy movements. He rises at 10 o'clock, spends half an hour over his boots, another half hour with the barber, and then talks to the mail boys, telegraph clerks, bar-tenders, and other employes of the house who will take the trouble to listen to him. After this he poses for half an hour on a particular flagstone, with his shoulders against a certain portion of the portico. If anybody happens to be standing in that place he waits patiently until he has a chance to take up his favorite position. He has a particular chair by a certain window in the dining-room, and here he breakfasts for an hour or more. After that he resumes his position in front of the house, or if it is raining takes up a certain fixed space on a particular bench in the corridor. His life is the acme of monotony; he naturally has few friends, for he never ventures out in the world, and his life and talk are tiresome to contemplate and hear. It is impossible even to get him to attend the theater. He undoubtedly does precisely as he wishes to do, and the whole world is willing that he should devote himself to his fascinating pursuit of hotel immolation.—Mail and Express.

Objected to the Method.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction asked an old negro why he did not send his son to school.

"Becaze I foun' dat he wuz er wastin' his time, sah, dat's why."

"Wastin' his time?"

"Yas, sah. Come gibin him er little ole spellin' book."

"What did you want him to have?"

"P'litical 'conomy. I wants him ter be er polertician."

"Well, but he must study a spelling book first."

"What fur?"

"So he can learn to read."

"Who wants him to read?"

"Why, he must read or he can't study political economy."

"Kaint study political 'conomy widout he ken read."

"No."

"An' he kan't read lesse'n he study de spellin' book."

"No."

"I reckon yer better go on, sah, an' let me ten ter mer own erfairs. Sent de chile ter school three weeks an' den axed him ter make er speech an' he couldn't do it. Jes' go on and let me run dis yer mercheen."—Arkansaw Traveler.

A BUTTER dealer recently sold a quantity of bad butter at a residence in Indianapolis. When he next returned he was invited in. He entered and was seized by the inmates, stripped of all his clothing, and buttered from head to foot with his rancid wares.

ASSASSINATED!

A Deputy Sheriff of Illinois is Assassinated While Riding Along the Public Highway.

VIENNA, Ill., Jan. 5.—F. A. Boyt, the coroner of Jackson county, was assassinated near here yesterday, while riding along the public road. He was found lying in the road, with a bullet hole in the back of his head. His revolver was lying near, with three empty chambers, indicating that he had a struggle with the assassins and was shot with his own weapon. The deceased was acting as deputy sheriff and left here yesterday morning with warrants on some parties in the western part of the county.

NEWARK'S MAYOR

Is in Favor of a Few First Class Funerals Among Railroad Officials.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 6.—The annual message of Mayor Haynes, is an unique document. In complaining of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, the mayor says: "A few first-class funerals, the subjects furnished from the directors of the road, would make room for a reasonable board; one that would not treat a city of 165,000 inhabitants, that pays them hundreds of thousands of dollars yearly, worse than they are at any country village from Hoboken to Buffalo. It becomes us on all occasions to be reconciled to the will of the Lord. If in his wisdom he should see fit to remove some of the directors of the road, the city of Newark would be periectly reconciled to his merciful dispensation."

GENERAL McNULTA.

The Wabash Receiver is Interviwed on His Guberanatorial Prospects.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Gen. John McNulta, the outspoken candidate for governor of Illinois, was at the Fifth Avenue hotel. When a reporter me him, he was somewhat modest about stating his chances, but he finally said: "I am not working actively, because I have no time to spare. I have duly announced myself as a candidate for the nomination without any claptrap about being pressed to run by my fellow citizens. While I think my chances are good, I will certainly not have a walkover when such candidates as General John C. Smith, Colonel Clark E. Carr, Major James Connelly and John Rinnaker are in the field. I am one of the original 306 Grant men, and am proud of my medal."

He Was Acquitted.

ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 6—Eldott Overshind was acquitted this morning, after an exciting trial, of the charge of murdering Dayton Warfield last July. The defendant's father is very wealthy. The murder was the consequence of a quarrel among a number of young men in a restaurant.

The Cleveland Accident.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 6.—The revised list of the dead and wounded in the bridge accident yesterday is as follows: Dead—H. C. Burton, Daniel Oakley. Injured—Alexander S. Emanuelson, burned by steam; John Bordon, burned by steam; Chas. Ord, slightly hurt; R. D. Hamblin, injured internally; Eugene Hanlon, slightly injured.

Held Responsible.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 5.—The coroner's jury, in rendering a verdict as to the cause of a recent disaster on the New York, Pennsylvania railroad, near Meadville, Pa., held Engineers George and McFarland and Conductor Murray, of the colliding freight train, responsible for the disaster.

Frozen to Death.

GRAND FORKS, Dak., Jan. 6.—B. S. Holland, of Bacheloro Grove, in the western part of this county, was frozen to death in the storm of Monday last. He had gone to Louisiana, two miles distant, to procure medicine for his sick wife, and was lost when returning on foot.

The Fire Record.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—The old car barn of the Chicago city railway company was burned last night. Loss, about $20,000.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 6.—Early this morning a fire on Highland avenue completely destroyed three five story building owned by John Hugus and J. P. Bailey. The fire is supposed to have been caosed by natural gas. Loss $35,000 partly insured.

The House Committee Hold a Meeting and Consider the Thoebe-Carlisle Election Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—There was a full meeting of the house committee on election to-day, to agree upon a line of procedure in the Thoebe-Carlisle contested election case. The contestant, Thoebe, was present with his counsel. No one formally represented the speaker. Mr. Sypher made a long argument reviewing the preliminary declarations and urging the importance of the committee going into the district and taking testimony.

He said Mr. Carlisle had himself acknowledged on the night after the election that he was defeated and Thoebe was elected. Thoebe also made a speech, and claimed that on the night of the election Carlisle's defeat was so evident that a conference of his friends was held and a decision reached to hold back the returns until they could be fixed up so as to give him a majority. This was done, and so boldly and clumsily, that the returns showed that changes and interpolations had been made in the same handwriting in different precincts, and fraud was manifest. At 2 p. m. the committee went into session.

In the secret session, proceedings were confined to reading several affidavits and without an attempt to come to an agreement upon the propositions submitted by Mr. Thoebs' counsel, the committee adjourned until to-morrow.

ARBUCKLE'S SUIT.

The Great Coffee Dealer Has a Breach of Promise Suit on His Hands.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Miss Clara Campbell, daughter of a millionaire iron dealer, is suing Charles Arbuckle, a wealthy coffee merchant, for breach of promise, laying her damages at $100,000. Arbuckle says Miss Campbell, who is thirty-nine years old, popped the question herself, a statement Miss Clara denies.

The third day of the proceedings in the Campbell-Arbuckle breach of promise suit, opened to-day with a crowded court room. The prosecution finished this morning. John E. Parsons made a motion for a non suit on the ground that there was no evidence to show a breach of promise marriage and the defendant had not refused to marry her. Judge Beach denied the motion holding that the breach might be inferred from nonperformance. On opening for the defence Mr. Parson said that Arbuckle had been loving kind and effectionate to the last, while he was on the sick bed and she was consulting the doctors about the case. Now she wants money instead of Arbuckle and his love. It had been said that the object of the suit was the vindication of the plaintiff's reputation, but he had nothing to say against the character of the plaintiff.

Several witnesses for the defense were examined in reference to Arbuckle's illness. The counsel announced the case closed. Arguments will be made on Monday.

A BAD WRECK

Takes Place on the Nickel Plate and Smashes Things Generally.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 6—A heavily loaded east-bound freight train collided with a light freight west bound on the Nickel Plate road, near Willoughby, Ohio, at 1:30 this morning. The east-bound train was loaded with live stock and dressed beef. Fifteen cars were demolished and many others badly damaged; but no one was injured on either train, except a shipper who received a trifling scalp wound.

A PECULIAR STRIKE

Inaugurated Among the Employes of the Wood Carving Department of the Pullman Car Works.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—A peculiar strike is now in progress at the Pullman car works. The entire wood carving force to the number of eighty are on a strike, having quit work Tuesday afternoon. The strikers are not demanding more wages or shorter hours. They protest against being classed in the cabinet department and demand that they be recognized as a separate and distinct department and that a foreman be appointed to take charge of the wood carving room. The strike was referred to the national executive committee of the Wood Carver's union and has been officially indorsed.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The county commissioners adjourned yesterday.

W. L. Fauset of Indianapolis is at the Aveline house.

Postmaster Ed. Finan, of Monroeville, was in town to-day.

C. M. Comparet, of this city, was at Bluffton Wednesday.

Mr. Bart Dowling, of New Haven, was in the city last evening.

Judge O'Rourke to-day divorced Anna M. Oswalt from Fidel Oswalt.

County Clerk Loag has issued 580 marriage licenses during the last year.

The Indianapolis board of trade paid John G. Blake, its retiring secretary, a very complimentary farewell yesterday.

Miss Gracie, the bright little daughter of Councilman and Mrs. M. N. Webber, has almost recovered from a severe attack of measles.

An attempt was made Tuesday night to blow up the safe in the treasurer's office at Ottawa. The burglars were frightened away; $50,000 were in the safe.

City Clerk Rockhill was at his desk to-day for the first time in a week. He is a great sufferer from rheumatism and next Monday he will go to St, Louis, Mich., for treatment.

At the meeting of the Bluffton lodge, A. O. U. W., held last evening, W. J. Vesey, Esq., was elected representative to the Grand lodge, which meets at Terre Haute, in February.

The adopted child of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney, living at No. 77 Lasselle street, died yesterday of bronchitis, at the age of nine months. The child was found nine month's ago on a doorstep in Frenchtown and was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney. The time of the funeral has not been announced.

City Assessor Reese has been figuring on improvements and real estate sales in the city for 1887. He finds 409 building permits issued by the city clerk and their value is recorded at $400,820. The real estate transfers in the city last year amount to $1,500,000. This is a pretty substantial showing any way you look at it.

The water works and finance committees of the council meet to-morrow night to consider the proposition to sink wells. Some one ought to read the sworn statements of the trustees that they now have a plentiful and inexhaustible supply of pure water and may be the council will not be asked to expend $19,000 on well experiments.

Miss Anna Tillo, the accomplished sister of Mr. Charles D. Tillo, the manager of the Newspaper Union, was married last evening at Mr. Tillo's residence, on East Berry street, to Mr. Geo. O. Terry, of Clyde, N. Y. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Moffat, of the First Presbyterian church, and Mr. and Mrs. Terry left last evening on the Wabash for Clyde, their future home.

The merchants and property holders on the entire length of Columbia street, propose to take a hand if necessary in the fight to compel the Nickel Plate to put in a crossing at the point where that road intersects that street. Some day or other the Main street bridge will have to be rebuilt and when that is done it is believed there will be no opposition to throwing the new bridge across from Columbia street. In the meantime it is desired to go ahead and by filling prepare the street to be thus used.

The new factory building of the Fort Wayne Furniture Co., is under roof the brick engine house is completed and the dry kiln will be finished this week. Pretty lively hustling that, for a concern that didn't buy its lumber and other building materials until Dec. 6, just one month ago. Its president, Mr. D. N. Foster, expects to hustle the folding bed business in like manner as soon as the building is complete. This new project promises big returns to its promoters, as the demand for really good folding beds very largely exceeds the supply. The designs of "the Brunswick" are to be produced by a leading firm of Chicago furniture designers, and will be far in advance of anything yet produced.

The crowds daily thronging the four floors of the Star Clothing house, proves that the public is not slow in appreciating the great cost sale now being operated by Sam, Pete & Max.

SPEAKER CARLISLE

Is Criticized by the New York Times on His Appointment of the House Committees.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Regarding the committees of the house the Times says: "Considering how long he has been about it, the work of the speaker cannot be said to be very well done, and its outcome in legislation cannot be looked forward to with much hopefulness. Placing Mr. Randall at the head of the appropriations committee may have been inevitable, but it was very unfortunate.

The more important committees are fairly conservative and will likely prevent any very extreme action, except in the case of the pensions committe and the committee on the reform of civil service. The naming of Archie Bliss as chairman of the former is almost scandalous. The chairmanship of the committee on civil service reform, is given Mr. Clements, an avowed opponent of the law, who reported in the last congress in favor of its appeal. The course of the speaker in this matter is inexplicable and through it may lead to no positive mischief may easily prevent legislation that is needed."

The Indianapolis Journal says: "Charles A. Munson, of Fort Wayne, is a candidate for renomination by the democrats for auditor of state. He was in this city last night, on his way to Evansville, to take part in the proceedings of the Traveling Men's association. His observations, he says, lead him to think the people are not paying much attention to politics. The democrats are satisfied with Cleveland's message and policy, and he hears very little talk concerning candidates for governor. Indeed, Mr Munson thinks that the people are rather late in arousing an interest in the coming campaign, but believes that the convention of the young democracy next week will supply the want. He favors the plan of party organization proposed, as do all others who are in the ring. There is harmony on the surface, but a little scheme the leaders have arranged to capture the labor organizations is likely to cause a turmoil." The Journal further airs a democratic scheme to capture the Knights of Labor convention held in this city this week, but if any such plan was under way, no one knew it.

Electric Belles at the Ball.

The employes of the Jenny electric light works, on Broadway, dedicated the new addition to the factory, last night, with a ball and banquet on the second floor of the spacious shop, which was brilliant with electric sparks and pretty girls. A program of seventeen numbers was danced and technical electric expressions added a novelty to each figure.

It is estimated that $50,000,000 of capital in this country is invested in natural gas.

The State Democratic Editorial association will meet at Indianaplis on the 12th instant, the day after the Hendricks club rally.

The improvements at Lima, Ohio, for the year 1887, have beeen it is claimed $5,000,000 including 500 dwellings, $700,000 worth of iron tanks, 50 miles of natural gas mains, 200 miles of oil pipe line by the Standard Oil company, 150 new oil wells were drilled in and the water works completed. This gives a faint idea of what natural gas would do for Fort Wayne.

Salvation Oil the celebrated American remedy is guaranteed to cure rheumatism, sore throat, swellings, bruises, burns and frost-bites. Price only twenty-five cents a bottle.

At the grocery and saloon of Gust Korn, on Broadway, last night, Daniel Doyle, salesman for Bursley & Co., and Leopold Wolf, the butcher, got into a quarrel. The men have been friends and Wolf, after entering the place, began to playfully annoy Doyle. This irritated the salesman and turning to Wolf, said: "What's the matter with you, you G—d d—n dirty Jew." At this remark Mr. Wolf struck him a terrible blow in the face and for a time Mr. Doyle lay senseless. This is the statement as given by bystanders, but it does not justify Mr. Wolf in so severely assaulting Mr. Doyle. The police were called, but made no arrests, as the participants left for their homes.

A BAND OF THUGS

Brutally Kill an Aged Lady and Then Rob Her of $1,000, the Earnings of Years.

NOGALES, Ari., Jan. 5.—A band of thugs has been operating for some time in the village of Sinotoa. Their last act was the strangling of Senora Victoria Hornandez, an old lady of that town, for her money. After she had been choked to death, the tugs stabbed her to the heart, crushed her head with an ax and robbed her house of $1,000, the accumulating of eighteen years of hard labor.

FRIDAY, JAN. 6, 1888.

SENATOR SHERMAN'S QUEER TARIFF POSITION.

THE SENTINEL yesterday directed attention to Senator Sherman's evasive criticism of President Cleveland's honest demand for a reduction of burdensome and unnecessary taxation. The Ohio statesman charges President Cleveland and the democratic party with having neglected certain feasible methods of reducing the treasury surplus—such as the more rapid payment of the debt by bond purchases at a high Sherman premium, the expenditures contemplated in the river and harbor bill, the dependent pension bill which the president vetoed, the establishment of a system of coast defenses, the building up of the naval and commercial marine, the passage of the deficiency bill, the refunding to the states of the $14,000,000 of direct taxes levied in 1862, and liberal appropriations for the support of public schools. If the people's money would have been freely lavished in the direction named, Mr. Sherman says the president would have no cause to seek a reduction of tariff taxes or reason to complain of a treasury surplus.

In the next breath Mr. Sherman favors a repeal of the internal revenue taxes on whisky, beer and tobacco, as against Mr. Cleveland's proposition to modify the taxes on the more substantial necessaries of life.

Mr. Sherman takes this extraordinary position in direct contradiction to his utterances in the senate when the proposition to create a tariff revision committee was before that body.

In the course of the debate on this bill for creating a tariff commission—almost every republican who spoke committed himself to the urgent necessity of reforming the tariff. For instance, the very same Senator Sherman thought it necessary to revise the tariff for the express purpose of reducing the taxes. He said:

Senator Sherman—The bill assumes that there is a necessity for the revision of the tariff laws, and as to this necessity there is no controversy or dispute. The very great changes in the relative value of articles in the tariff schedule, the wonderful results that have arisen from improved methods of manufacture, as in the case of steel; the wholesale evasions of standard of value, as in the case of sugar, and the numerous incongruities and defects of existing laws, developed by trial of twenty years, imperfectly patched up by amendments—all these causes combined render it necessary to revise not only the rate of duties, but the methods of ascertaining and collecting them. To these causes is also added the conceded fact that under existing laws we are collecting from the people of the United States as national taxes the sum of fifty to one hundred millions of dollars more than is requisite to meet all the proper current expenditures of the government and all our obligations to the public creditors and to comply with the sinking fund act for the gradual reduction of the public debt. We agree that the tariff should be revised and the taxes be reduced.

All that was five—nearly six years ago. The tariff commission bill was passed by republican votes, and the commission was appointed by a republican president. It consisted of two representatives of the wool and woolen interest, one of iron and steel, one of cotton and its manufacture, one of pottery, one of sugar and only one of agriculture, with one other, a general protectionist. All the members, except perhaps one, were protectionists, and all but three were republicans. These gentlemen took a good square look at the tariff and unanimously reported to congress that there ought to be an average reduction of duties not less than twenty per cent. They said:—

The average reduction in rates, including that from the enlargement of the free list and the abolition of the duties on charges and commissions, at which the commission has aimed, is not less on the average than 20 per cent. and it is the opinion of the commission that the reduction will reach 25 per cent. The reduction, slight in some cases, in others not attempted, is in many cases from 40 to 50 per cent.

They added also:

In the mechanical and manufacturing industries, especially those which have been long established, it would seem that the improvements in machinery and processes made within the last twenty years and the high scale of productiveness which has become a characteristic of their establishments, would permit our manufacturers to compete with their foreign rivals under a substantial reduction of existing duties.

These republican protectionists demanded precisely what the president's message recommends, "a substantial reduction of tariff duties." They say:

A substantial reduction of tariff duties is demanded, not by a mere indiscriminate popular clamor, but by the best conservative opinion of the country, including that which has in former times been most strenuous for the preservation of our national industrial defenses. Such a reduction of the existing tariff the commission regards not only as a due recognition of public sentiment and a measure of justice to consumers, but one conducive to the general industrial prosperity, and which, though it may be temporarily inconvenient, will be ultimately beneficial to the special interests affected by such reduction. No rates of defensive duties, except for the establishment of new industries, which more than equalize the conditions of labor and capital with those of foreign competitors, can be justified. Excessive duties, or these above standard of equalization, are positively injurious to the interests which they are supposed to benefit.

If President Cleveland had based his message on the utterances of republican senators and representatives, the leaders of that party, and on the conclusions of the republican tariff commission, it would not differ in any material point from its present shape.

So long as bonds could be bought with the surplus taxes, so long the country got on, because the surplus could be and was returned to circulation. But now, as the president says, and as the country knows, no redeemable bonds remain; the surplus taxes piled up in the treasury to the danger of every industry; and when Mr. Cleveland forcibly calls the attention of congress to the necessity of reducing the taxes, the republican protectionists, long ago and fully committed to tariff revision, set up a silly cry of "free trade" and "destruction to industrial interests."

A GENTLEMAN who lives in Petaluma, Cal., was recently exploring Mendocino County in search of unoccupied redwood lands and witnessed a singular combat between a large eagle and a coyote over a live hare which had just been caught. The eagle would try to rise from the ground with its prey, but the coyote, which also had hold of the prey, would pull the bird back every time. A combat would then follow and the feathers and fur would fly. What the end would have been can only be surmised, as the gentleman who witnessed the combat fired his pistol at them, and the eagle flew off and the coyote ran away.

BARBER PRESCHER, of Union Square, Elizabeth, N. J., has a large, tame white rat, of which he is extremely fond. The animal is very sagacious and fully appreciates the affection of its master. The barber seldom appears in public in the vicinity of his establishment without his pet either perched upon his shoulder, clinging to his vest, or nestling about his neck. When he takes the growler and goes for a pint of beer in the evening to a neighboring saloon the rat will perch itself on the edge of the can, drop its tail in the beer, and draw it out with the froth adhering to its caudal appendage, which it will then lick off with evident satisfaction.

ONLY 33, a grandmother and twice a widow, isn't found every day in the week, but there is a pretty little woman in Philadelphia who enjoys that rather remarkable distinction. Her name is Mrs. Gertrude Gadden, the widow of John P. Gadden of San Francisco. At the age of 15 she married a gentleman named Herbert, and a year later became the mother of a girl baby. At the age of 20 Mrs. Herbert lost her husband and donned widow's weeds, which she wore for twelve years. Her daughter, rather precocious, mentally and physically, followed her mother's example the day Mrs. Herbert became Mrs. Gadden. A year later a child was born to the daughter. Six months before this Mr. Gadden was killed by being thrown from a horse at Los Angeles. Mrs. Gadden is a rosy-cheeked, pretty little woman, and looks very little older than her daughter.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, being free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.

I give honor to whom it is due. Dr. David Kennedy's favorite remedy cured me of Bright's disease and Gravel. Four of the best physicians had failed to relieve me. I have recommended it to scores of people with like success, and know it will cure all who try it.—Mrs. E. P. Mizner, Burg Hill, O. Send 2c. stamp to Dr. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y., for book how to cure Kidney, Liver and Blood Disorders. Mention this paper.

We have sold Ely's Cream Balm about three years, and have recommended its use in more than a hundred special cases of catarrh. The unanimous answer to our inquiries is, "It's the best remedy that I have ever used." Our experience is, that where parties continued its use, it never failed to cure.—J. H. Montgomery & Co., Druggists, Decorah, Iowa.

I have used Ely's Cream Balm for dry catarrh (to which eastern persons are subject who come to live here). It has proved a cure.—B. F. M. Weeks, Denver, Col.

Syrup of Figs.

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is Nature's own true laxative. This pleasant California liquid fruit remedy may be had of Theime and Gross, druggists, large bottles at fifty cents or one dollar. It is the most pleasant, prompt, and effective remedy known to cleanse the system; to act on the Liver, Kidneys, and bowels gently yet thoroughly; to dispel Headaches, Colds and Fevers; to cure Constipation, Indigestion, and kindred ills.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS.

A Scaly, Itching Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the Cuticura Remedies twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless, and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ring worm, psoriasis, etc., I took . . and . . Sarsaparillas over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I cannot praise the Cuticura Remedies too much. They have made by skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was three boxes of Cuticura, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and two cakes of Cuticura Soap. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00 you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (picture number two "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose, I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know write me, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer it.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

Sanford's Radical Cure meets every phrase of Cattarh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving permanent in curing, safe, economical and never-failing.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.

That's So

Relief is certain for the despondent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmons Liver Regulator,—easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is no intoxicating beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the Liver. Take it once and and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent that Simmons Liver Regulator has. I would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."—P. M. JANNEY, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy acts has astonished the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative, that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so naturally that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the Liver; is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmons Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it."—Rev. JAS. M. ROLLINS, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. ALWAYS ASK FOR DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS, OR LITTLE SUGAR-COATED PILLS.

Being entirely vegetable, they operate without disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation. Put up in glass vials, hermetically sealed. Always fresh and reliable. As a laxative, alterative, or purgative, these little Pellets give the most perfect satisfaction.

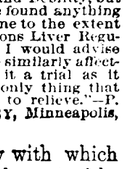
SICK HEADACHE,



Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Sold by druggists, 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

THE FATAL FOG!

Death Stared the Engineers in the Face This Morning, But Our Boys Escaped.

The Fort Wayne iron works are now working a night force.

The Pittsburg shops are engaged in repairing several engines.

There are a lot of gondola cars being built in the Pittsburg shops.

Winfield Lyons, an engineer on the Pittsburg road, is on the sick list.

J. M. McMannus, the tax agent of the Wabash road, was in the city to-day.

About a dozen of the machinists in the Bass foundry were working last night.

Robt. F. Douglass, the assistant ticket agent of the Wabash, returned from the east to-day.

Daniel King and Andrew Koontz, two well-known firemen on the Pittsburg road, are taking their vacation.

The Muncie railroad shops are rushed with work and a number of new employes have been given positions.

The lights were kept burning in the street cars this morning until after 8 o'clock on account of the dense fog.

The work in the manufacturing establishments of the city is more active this winter than it has been for several years.

The loungers who hang around the Pittsburg depot were locked out of the gentlemen's waiting-room this morning.

Vice President McCullough and other officials of the Pennsylvania railroad, are making a tour of inspection of the road.

James Tease, of the Wabash freight house, was called to Ossian to-day by telegraph, to attend the funeral of an old friend.

It is considered as probable that the steel workers' scale, formulatad by the Amalgamated association, will be signed by the mill owners.

J. M. McCann, of the Grand Rapids road, has been transferred from the firemanship on a freight engine to the same position on a passenger.

F. L. Martin, the general agent of the Cotton Belt railroad, and J. L. Winnett, the general traveling agent of the Wisconsin Central, were in the city to-day.

Thomas Mulhaney, a switchman of the Lake Shore yards at Toledo, fell from the cars at that place yesterday, and was run over, losing both of his legs.

The new moulding room in the Bass foundry is rushed with work and several men have been transferred from other parts of the shop to that department.

George Saffern, a moulder in the Bass foundry, is rejoicing over the arrival of a bright-eyed little girl at his house and was, in consequence of it, in the best of spirits this morning.

Rumor has it that Dennis McCarty, a popular young clerk in the Wabash freight office, is contemplating matrimony, but Dennis says the rumor is a slander on his fair name.

This was a dangerous morning for the railroad engineer. The fog made it impossible for him to see very far in front of his engine and the danger from collisions was very great.

There have been no promotions of Pittsburg firemen to the positions of engineers made this year. It is probable, however, that several will be made in a few days, and some of the boys are on the anxious seat.

An express and a passenger train dashed together Wednesday morning near Houston, Tex. One of the engineers and a mail agent were injured, but none of the passengers were, as reported, killed or wounded.

Several of the boys in the Pittsburg shops, who were to have been married during the holidays, have postponed that event until later in the season. They say that work is so rushing in the shops that they cannot get a leave of absence for their honeymoon trip.

Mr. O. Carter and his son, Edward, two of the well known employes of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, are at Valparaiso, having been called there suddenly a week ago by the illness of the wife of the former. The news was received this morning of her death, which took place yesterday. Mrs. Carter lived at Valparaiso, although Mr. Carter and his son have been working here for some time.

Fred Kanning, formerly a machinist in the Pittsburg shops of this city, but now living at St. Louis, Mo., was recently married to Mrs. Elizabeth Stephan, a wealthy lady of this city. The announcement of their marriage in these columns will be news to the many friends of Mr. Kanning in the Pittsburg shops. The happy couple have their home at St. Louis and Mrs. Kanning still retains her valuable Fort Wayne property.

Porter Chamberlain, a well known machinist in the Bass foundry, had two of his fingers badly mashed yesterday afternoon while working around the machinery in the shops. The nail was completely torn from one of his fingers, producing a very painful and ugly wound. The accident will keep him from work for several days. Mr. Chamberlain is one of the oldest machinists in the works, having been employed there for the last twenty years. During the last few years he has been extremely unfortunate, having met in that time with several very bad accidents while at work.

"It is all over town," said the Arab. "What?" asked the old man, his eyebrowns bristling with curiosity. "Mud" said the youngster, while his mouth went clear around his ears in a grin. "Right you are," said the old man. "With the mud comes cold and coughs, and you know the remedy." "Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup," rejoined the boy. "Right you are again!"

A Genuine Five Stone Cluster Diamond Ring for $1.

Yesterday J. E. Johnson, brakeman Wabash railroad, paid $1 for a can of tea at the Globe Tea & Coffee company, 87 Calhoun street, and on opening the can found a genuine five stone cluster diamond ring, valued at $65; also Lumbard & Schuler, general insurance, 13 East Main street, got a ladies' solid gold hunting case watch in one can and in another a genuine diamond ring, set in solid gold. Mrs. Thomas Wood, Auburn, Ind., and F. E. Dawson, bricklayer, each found gents' solid gold, full jeweled, Egin watches in their cans.

This is only a few of the many who do the same thing every day, only some of them find solid gold watches or ruby and sapphire gems set in solid gold. Those who get up a club order of $10 or $20, always get a valuable prize. Orders by mail promptly filled. The coffee has arrived containing prizes the same as the tea. Price $1 per can, six for $5. Open from 8 a. m. until 9 p. m. Globe Tea and Coffee Co., 87 Calhoun street, Fort Wayne.

W. E. Mossman, the lumber merchant, will erect an elegant new residence next spring on his lot near the west end of Washington street. When finished he will occupy it with his family and rent his present residence.

"What was the demand for flowers this New Year?" was asked of Mr. Will Markey, the florist. "Had all the business we wanted to handle," was the reply. "The demand for roses and high class flowers constantly increases. We can sell all the fine roses we can produce, and sometimes have to buy when there is some unusual call, like a conjunction of weddings, funerals and parties on a particular day or evening. And what is true in our case applies to all the florists here. The prices have not advanced correspondingly, and while they are very moderate for the season, are quite satisfactory on account of large sales. The growing of roses on benches, instead of in pots, as was the practice a few years ago, has improved the quality as well as greatly increased production. Roses are the favorites by a large majority, but there is a moderate call for many other favorites. We don't mind cold weather if it is fair. Cloudy weather hot or cold, is what we despise."

MAKE NO MISTAKE.—If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion and preparation, curative power superior to any other article of the kind before the people. For all affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system it is unequalled. Be sure to get Hood's.

The Babies Cry for It

And the old folks laugh when they find that the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is more easily taken and more beneficial in its action than bitter, nauseous medicines. It strengthens the liver, kidneys, stomach, and bowels, while it arouses them to a healthy activity. For sale by Thieme & Gross.

The year just closed has been one of universal prosperity to Fort Wayne business men.

The patronage given our establishment has very largely exceeded any year in the history of our store.

As our people have prospered, from year to year, they have demanded a finer class of goods than ever before, and it has been our aim to furnish these as promptly and as cheaply as the best stores in the largest cities.

With the opening of the new year, we desire to say that with added capital and experience we shall be better prepared in the future than ever before to meet your every want in our lines of merchandise.

Our business will continue to be conducted on the honest, square dealing, one-price system; but that price always the lowest possible penny at which the goods can be afforded. Fort Wayne has long since outgrown the back-woods style of doing business, which consisted chiefly in asking for an article double what it was worth and then wasting an hour or two of time, that wasn't then very valuable, in a struggle between buyer, and seller, to see which could out-jockey the other.

If your prefer to do your trading where your can be certain you will get only the most carefully selected goods, and these always at the lowest possible price, we invite your patronage the coming year, as we have in the years that have past; assuring you no effort will be spared to serve you faithfully and well.

TOM KELLY, of St. Louis, says: Only certain races have contributed champions to the prize ring. The general public don't suspect it, but nevertheless the Jews have supplied their quota. There was Dutch Sam, a first-class man in his day, and Daniel Mendoza was anything but a slouch. Later we have the Lazarus and Aaron families, and others whom I do not recollect. Nobody ever heard of a German or French pugilist. The Germans and the French can become good fencers, but when it comes down to fist fighting they have no heart, or, as we say in sporting circles, no bottom. Sullivan is certainly the strongest man that ever shied a castor in a ring, but Jem Mace, in his day, was the greatest artist."

THE Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby has been the pastor of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, for twenty-five years. Dr. Crosby comes of an old and wealthy Knickerbocker family, and was born in New York sixty-one years ago. He began his professional life as a professor of Greek, and was one of the founders of the New York Greek Club. There is no more public-spirited citizen than Dr. Crosby, and none who has more enemies or more friends. He is an active member of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, and is a champion of the temperance, but not the prohibition-movement. In appearance Dr. Crosby looks the scholar that he is. His forehead is strikingly high and full, and the expression of his eyes that of intelligence and benevolence. He wears his face clean-shaven save for a pair of mutton-chop whiskers. Dr. Crosby is particularly fond of the sun, and no day seems to warm for him. He may be seen in July walking on the sunny side of the street with his hat off, fairly reveling in the tropical heat. In the winter Dr. Crosby lives in New York, but in the summer he goes to Pine Hill, in the Catskills, where he has recently bought a house.

No home should be without it to arrest disorders promptly, which, if not taken in season often develop into serious diseases. Rev. James M. Rollins, pastor M. E. church, S., Fairfield, Va., writes: "I have used Simmons Liver Regulator for many years, having made it my only family medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it. It is a safe, good and reliable medicine for any disorder of the system and if used in time is a great preventive of sickness."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins by grocers, labeled thus: JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England.

are Kidney and Liver diseases, and when once they have secured a firm hold on the human system there is no time to be lost if life is to be saved. Many remedies have been tried, but none have been so successful as Ath-lo-pho-ros. Many unsolicited testimonials have proved that Ath-lo-pho-ros has cured these diseases when physicians and all other remedies had failed. Backache, pain in the side, dullness, weariness, and headache, are often symptoms of these fearful diseases. Athlophoros, in connection with Athlophoros Pills, will give speedy relief. FRIDAY, JAN. 6, 1888.

THE CITY NEWS.

The sleighing did not last long.

January is one of the longest months in the year.

Capt. Henry McKinnie went to Columbus, Ohio, this morning.

The year commencing Sunday will have 366 days and fifty-three Sundays.

Rev. L. H. Murlin, who has been visiting at Holgate for the last few days, has returned.

This year has 366 days and the girls have the privilege of making the proposals of marriage.

Forepaugh's show was at Los Angelos, Cal., during the holidays, so Cal Rieman writes to this city.

Mrs. Fairbanks, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Newell, of Massachusetts, who have been spending the holidays with Mrs. C. D. Newell, of Douglas avenue, have returned to their homes.

You'll be surprised to see the rushing business done by Sam, Pete & Max; but when you consider they are selling off their large and magnificent stock at cost, no further explanation is required.

Dr. M. F. Porter is on the sick list.

Harry Hanna went to Cleveland, O., this morning.

Bert Foster is considerably improved and now sits up most of the time.

Mr. John Lillie left to-day for Kankakee, Ill., to join Mrs. Lillie, who is visiting there.

The new folding bed company have sold a number of their beds for use in the Wayne hotel.

Counterfeit $20 bills, finely executed and purporting to have been issued by the First National bank of Indianapolis, are in circulation.

The Thalonian and Philalathean Literary societies will hold their regular literary entertainment, at the Methodist college building this evening.

The gravel pits near Rome City will soon be opened, as the track leading from the Grand Rapids and Indiana main line is about finished.

The Morton club elects officers next Monday evening. Judge Chapin is among those mentioned for the presidency. President Bursley believes in rotation in office and therefore refuses a re-election.

General Carnahan states 10,000, and probably 15,000 Uniformed Knights will be in line in Cincinnati during the session of the supreme lodge, the second week in June. At the last session, held in Toronto, 4,000 Uniformed Knights were in line.

Something should be done with "Fort Hettler," as it is humorously called, next spring. It is an outrage on the Hamiltons and other property holders to have the incompleted reservoir remain any more years in its present unsightly and disgraceful condition.

At the annual meeting of the American Humane association, recently held in Rochester, N. Y., reports from the various state societies were read and showed the work, so far as it had been pushed, to be in an encouraging condition. Indiana, however, was not represented, and to her shame be it said, was classed as a part of the missionary field of the association.

Charley Comparet knows who to tie to and this item from the Garrett Clipper indicates his position: "Mr. Comparet tells us that Judge McClellan, of Auburn, is the strongest candidate for congress in the district outside of O'Rourke. He says McClellan has lots of backers in Fort Wayne and vicinity."

Messrs. Cal Rieman and J. S. Koller, who left this city some time ago for Pasadena, Cal., have formed a partnership in the real estate business at that place and they advertise their business very extensively in the Pasadena and Los Angelos papers. We are glad to hear they are both doing well in their new western homes.

The owner of ticket 981 will be presented with the fine top buggy, by Messrs. Sam Pete & Max, if presented before March 1, 1888, after which date the alternates Nos. 1,136, 1,396 and 403 will be entitled to the prize in their order. d&wtf

Miss Lizzie Huntsberger, of Harrisburg, Pa., is in the city visiting friends.

There have been four births at the county infirmary since New Years day.

Miss Lou Kendrick left this morning for an extended visit among friends at Englewood, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Coppernoll have returned from Michigan, where they spent the holidays.

The D. N. Foster Furniture Co., secures the contract for chairs for the new Wayne hotel.

The Pennington machine company has outgrown its present quarters and it is not unlikely it will rent Mr. P. A. Randall's building next door when rebuilt and thus greatly increase it facilities.

The family of Mr. F. P. Randall have transferred their household furniture to the present unoccupied house of Mrs. Hanna, which they will make their home until the damage to their house can be repaired.

Mr. Louis Wolf, the enterprising dry goods and carpet man of our city, returned last night from the east, where he sojourned several weeks looking for bargains in his line. The little man looks well.

The Catholic fair at Avilla, last week, was a succes financially and otherwise. One of the most interesting contests was that between John W. Smith and John Gill, of Albion, for a gold headed cane. The gentlemen did not take much interest in the contest, but their friends did considerable hustling. The vote resulted in Mr. Smith being awarded the prize. The vote standing 265 to 168.

A special telegram from Washington says that "Civil Service Commissioner Edgerton attended recently a performance in this city of 'Nancy and Company.' He said that sixty years ago on that day he had seen at Albany, N. Y., Mrs. Madee, a member of that company, play the part of 'Lady Teazle.' Mr. Edgerton said he called on Mrs. Madee at her hotel, and she told him that she was now seventy-seven years of age, and that she expected to remain on the stage until she died. She told him that she knew of no one now allve, with the exception of himself, who had seen her act so many years ago."

There are no daily papers in the Twelfth congressional district outside of Fort Wayne, and this city issues five daily newspapers, four English and one German. Politically they stand three democratic and two republican. Of weekly papers Steuben county has two, LaGrange county four, DeKalb county, seven, Noble county six, Whitley county two and Allen county six, making twenty-seven in all. These are about evenly divided between the two old parties, except one in this city representing the greenback and labor party. There are also other papers in several of the smaller towns, independent in politics.

Think of it! You can now buy for $4 and $5 a superb blue chinchilla overcoat, (men's sizes), one-half the former price at the great Sam, Pete and Max removal sale.

The Bluffton Times says: "Dr. J. W. Younge, of Fort Wayne, was in the city this morning, in the interest of prohibition. The doctor tells us that the next issue of the Tribune, his prohibition paper, will stir up the natives in the church, law and medicine. Dr. Swearingen's articles will also appear."

There will be two eclipses of the moon and three of the sun during the year 1888. A total eclipse of the moon will occur on Saturday, the 28th inst., which will be visible throughout the United States. The moon will enter the earth's shadow at 3:31 p. m. The total phase will begin an hour later, or 4:31 and end at 6:06, while the moon will leave the shadow and the obscuration end at 7:09. It will be a very beautiful sight, provided the weather is clear.

A Mystery of One of the Hotels.

The hotel hermit is a distinct creation. I have one in view now. He has lived for sixteen years at one of the most prominent of the Broadway hotels, and in that time it is doubtful if he has been away from the house more than ten consecutive hours. He is a heavy-jawed, red-faced creature, with sluggish eyes, ponderous belly and lazy movements. He rises at 10 o'clock, spends half an hour over his boots, another half hour with the barber, and then talks to the mail boys, telegraph clerks, bar-tenders, and other employes of the house who will take the trouble to listen to him. After this he poses for half an hour on a particular flagstone, with his shoulders against a certain portion of the portico. If anybody happens to be standing in that place he waits patiently until he has a chance to take up his favorite position. He has a particular chair by a certain window in the dining-room, and here he breakfasts for an hour or more. After that he resumes his position in front of the house, or if it is raining takes up a certain fixed space on a particular bench in the corridor. His life is the acme of monotony; he naturally has few friends, for he never ventures out in the world, and his life and talk are tiresome to contemplate and hear. It is impossible even to get him to attend the theater. He undoubtedly does precisely as he wishes to do, and the whole world is willing that he should devote himself to his fascinating pursuit of hotel immolation.—Mail and Express.

Objected to the Method.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction asked an old negro why he did not send his son to school.

"Because I foun' dat he wuz er wastin' his time, sah, dat's why."

"Wastin' his time?"

"Yas, sah. Come gibin him er little ole spellin' book."

"What did you want him to have?"

"P'litical 'conomy. I wants him ter be er polertician."

"Well, but he must study a spelling book first."

"What fur?"

"So he can learn to read."

"Who wants him to read?"

"Why, he must read or he can't study political economy."

"Kaint study 'political 'conomy widout he kan read."

"No."

"An' he kan't read lesse'n he study de spellin' book."

"No."

"I reckon yer better go on, sah, an' let me ten tar mer own erfairs. Sent de chile ter school three weeks an' den axed him ter make or speech an' he couldn't do it. Jes' go on and let me run dis yer marcheen."—Arkansaw Traveler.

A BUTTER dealer recently sold a quantity of bad butter at a residence in Indianapolis. When he next returned he was invited in. He entered and was seized by the inmates, stripped of all his clothing, and buttered from head to foot with his rancid wares.

ASSASSINATED!

A Deputy Sheriff of Illinois is Assassinated While Riding Along the Public Highway.

VIENNA, Ill., Jan. 5.—F. A. Boyt, the coroner of Jackson county, was assassinated near here yesterday, while riding along the public road. He was found lying in the road, with a bullet hole in the back of his head. His revolver was lying near, with three empty chambers, indicating that he had a struggle with the assassins and was shot with his own weapon. The deceased was acting as deputy sheriff and left here yesterday morning with warrants on some parties in the western part of the county.

NEWARK'S MAYOR

Is in Favor of a Few First Class Funerals Among Railroad Officials.

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 6.—The annual message of Mayor Haynes, is an unique document. In complaining of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, the mayor says: "A few first-class funerals, the subjects furnished from the directors of the road, would make room for a reasonable board; one that would not treat a city of 165,000 inhabitants, that pays them hundreds of thousands of dollars yearly, worse than they are at any country village from Hoboken to Buffalo. It becomes us on all occasions to be reconciled to the will of the Lord. If in his wisdom he should see fit to remove some of the directors of the road, the city of Newark would be perfectly reconciled to his merciful dispensation."

GENERAL McNULTA.

The Wabash Receiver is Interviwed on His Gubernatorial Prospects.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Gen. John McNulta, the outspoken candidate for governor of Illinois, was at the Fifth Avenue hotel. When a reporter met him, he was somewhat modest about stating his chances, but he finally said: "I am not working actively, because I have no time to spare. I have only announced myself as a candidate for the nomination without any claptrap about being pressed to run by my fellow citizens. While I think my chances are good, I will certainly not have a walk-over when such candidates as General John C. Smith, Colonel Clark E. Carr, Major James Connelly and John Rinaker are in the field. I am one of the original 306 Grant men, and am proud of my medal."

He Was Acquitted.

ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 6—Eldott Overshind was acquitted this morning, after an exciting trial, of the charge of murdering Dayton Warfield last July. The defendant's father is very wealthy. The murder was the consequence of a quarrel among a number of young men in a restaurant.

The Cleveland Accident.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 6.—The revised list of the dead and wounded in the bridge accident yesterday is as follows: Dead—H. C. Burton, Daniel Oakley. Injured—Alexander S. Emanuelson, burned by steam; John Bordon, burned by steam; Chas. Ord, slightly hurt; R. D. Hamblin, injured internally; Eugene Hanlon, slightly injured.

Held Responsible.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 5.—The coroner's jury, in rendering a verdict as to the cause of a recent disaster on the New York, Pennsylvania railroad, near Meadville, Pa., held Engineers George and McFarland and Conductor Murray, of the colliding freight train, responsible for the disaster.

Frozen to Death.

GRAND FORKS, Dak., Jan. 6.—B. S. Holland, of Bachelors Grove, in the western part of this county, was frozen to death in the storm of Monday last. He had gone to Louisiana, two miles distant, to procure medicine for his sick wife, and was lost when returning on foot.

The Fire Record.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—The old car barn of the Chicago city railway company was burned last night. Loss, about $20,000.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 6.—Early this morning a fire on Highland avenue completely destroyed three five story building owned by John Hague and J. P. Bailey. The fire is supposed to have been caused by natural gas. Loss $35,000 partly insured.

The House Committee Hold a Meeting and Consider the Thoebe-Carlisle Election Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—There was a full meeting of the house committee on election to-day, to agree upon a line of procedure in the Thoebe-Carlisle contested election case. The contestant, Thoebe, was present with his counsel. No one formally represented the speaker. Mr. Sypher made a long argument reviewing the preliminary declarations and urging the importance of the committee going into the district and taking testimony.

He said Mr. Carlisle had himself acknowledged on the night after the election that he was defeated and Thoebe was elected. Thoebe also made a speech, and claimed that on the night of the election Carlisle's defeat was so evident that a conference of his friends was held and a decision reached to hold back the returns until they could be fixed up so as to give him a majority. This was done, and so boldly and clumsily, that the returns showed that changes and interpolations had been made in the same handwriting in different precincts, and fraud was manifest. At 2 p. m. the committee went into session.

In the secret session, proceedings were confined to reading several affidavits and without an attempt to come to an agreement upon the propositions submitted by Mr. Thoebe' counsel', the committee adjourned until to-morrow.

ARBUCKLE'S SUIT.

The Great Coffee Dealer Has a Breach of Promise Suit on His Hands.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Miss Clara Campbell, daughter of a millionaire iron dealer, is suing Charles Arbuckle, a wealthy coffee merchant, for breach of promise, laying her damages at $100,000. Arbuckle says Miss Campbell, who is thirty-nine years old, popped the question herself, a statement Miss Clara denies.

The third day of the proceedings in the Campbell-Arbuckle breach of promise suit, opened to-day with a crowded court room. The prosecution finished this morning. John E. Parsons made a motion for a non suit on the ground that there was no evidence to show a breach of promise marriage and the defendant had not refused to marry her. Judge Beach denied the motion holding that the breach might be inferred from non-performance. On opening for the defence Mr. Parson said that Arbuckle had been loving kind and affectionate to the last, while he was on the sick bed and she was consulting the doctors about the case. Now she wants money instead of Arbuckle and his love. It had been said that the object of the suit was the vindication of the plaintiff's reputation, but he had nothing to say against the character of the plaintiff.

Several witnesses for the defense were examined in reference to Arbuckle's illness. The counsel announced the case closed. Arguments will be made on Monday.

A BAD WRECK

Takes Place on the Nickel Plate and Smashes Things Generally.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 6—A heavily loaded east-bound freight train collided with a light freight west bound on the Nickel Plate road, near Willoughby, Ohio, at 1:30 this morning. The east-bound train was loaded with live stock and dressed beef. Fifteen cars were demolished and many others badly damaged; but no one was injured on either train, except a shipper who received a trifling scalp wound.

A PECULIAR STRIKE

Inaugurated Among the Employes of the Wood Carving Department of the Pullman Car Works.

CHICAGO, Jan. 6.—A peculiar strike is now in progress at the Pullman car works. The entire wood carving force to the number of eighty are on a strike, having quit work Tuesday afternoon. The strikers are not demanding more wages or shorter hours. They protest against being classed in the cabinet department and demand that they be recognized as a separate and distinct department and that a foreman be appointed to take charge of the wood carving room. The strike was referred to the national executive committee of the Wood Carver's union and has been officially indorsed.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The county commissioners adjourned yesterday.

W. L. Fansel of Indianapolis is at the Aveline house.

Postmaster Ed. Finan, of Monroeville, was in town to-day.

C. M. Comparet, of this city, was at Bluffton Wednesday.

Mr. Bart Dowling, of New Haven, was in the city last evening.

Judge O'Rourke to-day divorced Anna M. Oswalt from Fidel Oswalt.

County Clerk Long has issued 590 marriage licenses during the last year.

The Indianapolis board of trade paid John G. Blake, its retiring secretary, a very complimentary farewell yesterday.

Miss Gracie, the bright little daughter of Councilman and Mrs. M. N. Webber, has almost recovered from a severe attack of measles.

An attempt was made Tuesday night to blow up the safe in the treasurer's office at Ottawa. The burglars were frightened away; $50,000 were in the safe.

City Clerk Rockhill was at his desk to-day for the first time in a week. He is a great sufferer from rheumatism and next Monday he will go to St. Louis, Mich., for treatment.

At the meeting of the Bluffton lodge, A. O. U. W., held last evening, W. J. Vesey, Esq., was elected representative to the Grand lodge, which meets at Terre Haute, in February.

The adopted child of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sweeney, living at No. 77 Lasselle street, died yesterday of bronchitis, at the age of nine months. The child was found nine month's ago on a door-step in Frenchtown and was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney. The time of the funeral has not been announced.

City Assessor Reese has been figuring on improvements and real estate sales in the city for 1887. He finds 409 building permits issued by the city clerk and their value is recorded at $400,825. The real estate transfers in the city last year amount to $1,500,000. This is a pretty substantial showing any way you look at it.

The water works and finance committees of the council meet to-morrow night to consider the proposition to sink wells. Some one ought to read the sworn statements of the trustees that they now have a plentiful and inexhaustible supply of pure water and may be the council will not be asked to expend $19,000 on well experiments.

The merchants and property holders on the entire length of Columbia street, propose to take a hand if necessary in the fight to compel the Nickel Plate to put in a crossing at the point where that road intersects that street. Some day or other the Main street bridge will have to be rebuilt and when that is done it is believed there will be no opposition to throwing the new bridge across from Columbia street. In the meantime it is desired to go ahead and by filling prepare the street to be thus used.

The new factory building of the Fort Wayne Furniture Co., is under roof the brick engine house is completed and the dry kiln will be finished this week. Pretty lively hustling that, for a concern that didn't buy its lumber and other building materials until Dec. 6, just one month ago. Its president, Mr. D. N. Foster, expects to hustle the folding bed business in like manner as soon as the building is complete. This new project promises big returns to its promoters, as the demand for really good folding beds very largely exceeds the supply. The designs of "The Brunswick" are to be produced by a leading firm of Chicago furniture designers, and will be far in advance of anything yet produced.

The crowds daily thronging the four floors of the Star Clothing house, proves that the public is not slow in appreciating the great cost sale now being operated by Sam, Pete & Max.

SPEAKER CARLISLE

Is Criticized by the New York Times on His Appointment of the House Committees.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—Regarding the committees of the house the Times says: "Considering how long he has been about it, the work of the speaker cannot be said to be very well done, and its outcome in legislation cannot be looked forward to with much hopefulness. Placing Mr. Randall at the head of the appropriations committee may have been inevitable, but it was very unfortunate.

The more important committees are fairly conservative and will likely prevent any very extreme action, except in the case of the pensions committe and the committee on the reform of civil service. The naming of Archie Bliss as chairman of the former is almost scandalous. The chairmanship of the committee on civil service reform, is given Mr. Clements, an avowed opponent of the law, who reported in the last congress in favor of its appeal. The course of the speaker in this matter is inexplicable and through it may lead to no positive mischief may easily prevent legislation that is needed."

The Indianapolis Journal says: "Charles A. Munson, of Fort Wayne, is a candidate for renomination by the democrats for auditor of state. He was in this city last night, on his way to Evansville, to take part in the proceedings of the Traveling Men's association. His observations, he says, lead him to think the people are not paying much attention to politics. The democrats are satisfied with Cleveland's message and policy, and he hears very little talk concerning candidates for governor. Indeed, Mr. Munson thinks that the people are rather late in arousing an interest in the coming campaign, but believes that the convention of the young democracy next week will supply the want. He favors the plan of party organization proposed, as do all others who are in the ring. There is harmony on the surface, but a little scheme the leaders have arranged to capture the labor organizations is likely to cause a turmoil." The Journal further airs a democratic scheme to capture the Knights of Labor convention held in this city this week, but if any such plan was under way, no one knew it.

Electric Belles at the Ball.

The employes of the Jenny electric light works, on Broadway, dedicated the new addition to the factory, last night, with a ball and banquet on the second floor of the spacious shop, which was brilliant with electric sparks and pretty girls. A program of seventeen numbers was danced and technical electric expressions added a novelty to each figure.

The improvements at Lima, Ohio, for the year 1887, have been It is claimed $5,000,000 including 500 dwellings, $700,000 worth of iron tanks, 50 miles of natural gas mains, 200 miles of oil pipe line by the Standard Oil company, 150 new oil wells were drilled in and the water works completed. This gives a faint idea of what natural gas would do for Fort Wayne.

At the grocery and saloon of Gust Korn, on Broadway, last night, Daniel Doyle, salesman for Bursley & Co., and Leopold Wolf, the butcher, got into a quarrel. The men have been friends and Wolf, after entering the place, began to playfully annoy Doyle. This irritated the salesman and turning to Wolf, said: "What's the matter with you, you G—d d—n dirty Jew." At this remark Mr. Wolf struck him a terrible blow in the face and for a time Mr. Doyle lay senseless. This is the statement as given by bystanders, but it does not justify Mr. Wolf in so severely assaulting Mr. Doyle. The police were called, but made no arrests, as the participants left for their homes.

A BAND OF THUGS

Brutally Kill an Aged Lady and Then Rob Her of $1,000, the Earnings of Years.

NOGALES, Ari., Jan. 5.—A band of thugs has been operating for some time in the village of Sinoles. Their last act was the strangling of Senora Vicinta Hernandez, an old lady of that town, for her money. After she had been choked to death, the thugs stabbed her twice and crushed her head with an ax and robbed her house of $1,000, the accumulation of eighteen years of hard labor.

FRIDAY, JAN. 6, 1888.

SENATOR SHERMAN'S QUEER TARIFF POSITION.

THE SENTINEL yesterday directed attention to Senator Sherman's evasive criticism of President Cleveland's honest demand for a reduction of burdensome and unnecessary taxation. The Ohio statesman charges President Cleveland and the democratic party with having neglected certain feasible methods of reducing the treasury surplus—such as the more rapid payment of the debt by bond purchases at a high Sherman premium, the expenditures contemplated in the river and harbor bill, the dependent pension bill which the president vetoed, the establishment of a system of coast defenses, the building up of the naval and commercial marine, the passage of the deficiency bill, the refunding to the states of the $14,000,000 of direct taxes levied in 1862, and liberal appropriations for the support of public schools. If the people's money would have been freely lavished in the direction named, Mr. Sherman says the president would have no cause to seek a reduction of tariff taxes or reason to complain of a treasury surplus.

In the next breath Mr. Sherman favors a repeal of the internal revenue taxes on whisky, beer and tobacco, as against Mr. Cleveland's proposition to modify the taxes on the more substantial necessaries of life.

Mr. Sherman takes this extraordinary position in direct contradiction to his utterances in the senate when the proposition to create a tariff revision committee was before that body.

In the course of the debate on this bill for creating a tariff commission—almost every republican who spoke committed himself to the urgent necessity of reforming the tariff. For instance, the very same Senator Sherman thought it necessary to revise the tariff for the express purpose of reducing the taxes. He said:

Senator Sherman—The bill assumes that there is a necessity for the revision of the tariff laws, and as to this necessity there is no controversy or dispute. The very great changes in the relative value of articles in the tariff schedule, the wonderful results that have arisen from improved methods of manufacture, as in the case of steel; the wholesale evasions of standard of value, as in the case of sugar, and the numerous incongruities and defects of existing laws, developed by trial of twenty years, imperfectly patched up by amendments—all these causes combined render it necessary to revise not only the rate of duties, but the methods of ascertaining and collecting them. To these causes is also added the conceded fact that under existing laws we are collecting from the people of the United States as national taxes the sum of fifty to one hundred millions of dollars more than is requisite to meet all the proper current expenditures of the government and all our obligations to the public creditors and to comply with the sinking fund act for the gradual reduction of the public debt. We agree that the tariff should be revised and the taxes be reduced.

All that was five—nearly six years ago. The tariff commission bill was passed by republican votes, and the commission was appointed by a republican president. It consisted of two representatives of the wool and woolen interest, one of iron and steel, one of cotton and its manufacture, one of pottery, one of sugar and only one of agriculture, with one other, a general protectionist. All the members, except perhaps one, were protectionists, and all but three were republicans. These gentlemen took a good square look at the tariff and unanimously reported to congress that there ought to be an average reduction of duties not less than twenty per cent. They said:—

The average reduction in rates, including that from the enlargement of the free list and the abolition of the duties on charges and commissions, at which the commission has aimed, is not less on the average than 20 per cent. and it is the opinion of the commission that the reduction will reach 25 per cent. The reduction, slight in some cases, in others not attempted, is in many cases from 40 to 50 per cent.

They added also:

In the mechanical and manufacturing industries, especially those which have been long established, it would seem that the improvements in machinery and processes made within the last twenty years and the high scale of productiveness which has become a characteristic of their establishments, would permit our manufacturers to compete with their foreign rivals under a substantial reduction of existing duties.

These republican protectionists demanded precisely what the president's message recommends, "a substantial reduction of tariff duties." They say:

A substantial reduction of tariff duties is demanded, not by a mere indiscriminate popular clamor, but by the best conservative opinion of the country, including that which has in former times been most strenuous for the preservation of our national industrial defenses. Such a reduction of the existing tariff the commission regards not only as a due recognition of public sentiment and a measure of justice to consumers, but one conducive to the general industrial prosperity, and which, though it may be temporarily inconvenient, will be ultimately beneficial to the special interests affected by such reduction. No rates of defensive duties, except for the establishment of new industries, which more than equalize the conditions of labor and capital with those of foreign competitors, can be justified. Excessive duties, or those above standard of equalization, are positively injurious to the interests which they are supposed to benefit.

If President Cleveland had based his message on the utterances of republican senators and representatives, the leaders of that party, and on the conclusions of the republican tariff commission, it would not differ in any material point from its present shape.

So long as bonds could be bought with the surplus taxes, so long the country got on, because the surplus could be and was returned to circulation. But now, as the president says, and as the country knows, no redeemable bonds remain; the surplus taxes piled up in the treasury to the danger of every industry; and when Mr. Cleveland forcibly calls the attention of congress to the necessity of reducing the taxes, the republican protectionists, long ago and fully committed to tariff revision, set up a silly cry of "free trade" and "destruction to industrial interests."

A GENTLEMAN who lives in Petaluma, Cal., was recently exploring Mendocino County in search of unoccupied redwood lands and witnessed a singular combat between a large eagle and a coyote over a live hare which had just been caught. The eagle would try to rise from the ground with its prey, but the coyote, which also had hold of the prey, would pull the bird back every time. A combat would then follow and the feathers and fur would fly. What the end would have been can only be surmised, as the gentleman who witnessed the combat fired his pistol at them, and the eagle flew off and the coyote ran away.

BARBER PRESCHER, of Union Square, Elizabeth, N. J., has a large, tame white rat, of which he is extremely fond. The animal is very sagacious and fully appreciates the affection of its master. The barber seldom appears in public in the vicinity of his establishment without his pet either perched upon his shoulder, clinging to his vest, or nestling about his neck. When he takes the growler and goes for a pint of beer in the evening to a neighboring saloon the rat will perch itself on the edge of the can, drop its tail in the beer, and draw it out with the froth adhering to its caudal appendage, which it will then lick off with evident satisfaction.

ONLY 33, a grandmother and twice a widow, isn't found every day in the week, but there is a pretty little woman in Philadelphia who enjoys that rather remarkable distinction. Her name is Mrs. Gertrude Gadden, the widow of John P. Gadden of San Francisco. At the age of 15 she married a gentleman named Herbert, and a year later became the mother of a girl baby. At the age of 20 Mrs. Herbert lost her husband and donned widow's weeds, which she wore for twelve years. Her daughter, rather precocious, mentally and physically, followed her mother's example the day Mrs. Herbert became Mrs. Gadden. A year later a child was born to the daughter. Six months before this Mr. Gadden was killed by being thrown from a horse at Los Angeles. Mrs. Gadden is a rosy-cheeked, pretty little woman, and looks very little older than her daughter.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a purely vegetable preparation, being free from injurious ingredients. It is peculiar in its curative power.

I give honor to whom it is due. Dr. David Kennedy's favorite remedy cured me of Bright's disease and Gravel. Four of the best physicians had failed to relieve me. I have recommended it to scores of people with like success, and know it will cure all who try it.—Mrs. E. P. Misner, Burg Hill, O. Send 2c. stamp to Dr. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y., for book how to cure Kidney, Liver and Blood Disorders. Mention this paper.

We have sold Ely's Cream Balm about three years, and have recommended its use in more than a hundred special cases of catarrh. The unanimous answer to our inquiries is, "It's the best remedy that I have ever used." Our experience is, that where parties continued its use, it never failed to cure.—J. H. Montgomery & Co., Druggists, Decorah, Iowa.

I have used Ely's Cream Balm for dry catarrh (to which eastern persons are subject who come to live here). It has proved a cure.—B. F. M. Weeks, Denver, Col.

Syrup of Figs.

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is Nature's own true laxative. This pleasant California liquid fruit remedy may be had of Theime and Gross, druggists, large bottles at fifty cents or one dollar. It is the most pleasant, prompt, and effective remedy known to cleanse the system; to act on the Liver, Kidneys, and bowels gently yet thoroughly; to dispel Headaches, Colds and Fevers; to cure Constipation, Indigestion, and kindred ills.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS.

A Scaly, Itching Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the Cuticura Remedies twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless, and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease ever again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, scattering worm, psoriasis &c. etc. I took . . . and . . . Sarsaparilla all over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I cannot praise the Cuticura Remedies too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was three bottles of Cuticura, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and two cakes of Cuticura soap. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00, you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (picture number two "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know write me, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer it.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep sound and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine health and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

Sanford's Radical Cure meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving permanent in curing, safe, economical and never-failing.

Sanford's Radical Cure consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catarrhal Solvent, and one Improved Inhaler, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.

That's So

Relief is certain for the despondent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmons Liver Regulator,—easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is no intoxicating beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the Liver. Take it once and and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent that Simmons Liver Regulator has. I would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."—J. M. JANNEY, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy acts has astonished the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative, that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so naturally that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the Liver; is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmons Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it."—Rev. JAS. M. HOLTINS, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va.

Sold by all Druggists. Prepared by J. H. Zeilin & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. The Original LITTLE LIVER PILLS.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. ALWAYS ASK FOR DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS, OR LITTLE SUGAR-COATED PILLS.

Being entirely vegetable, they operate without disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation. Put up in glass vials, hermetically sealed. Always fresh and reliable. As a laxative, alterative, or purgative, these little Pellets give the most perfect satisfaction.

SICK HEADACHE,

Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Pellets over so great a variety of diseases it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Sold by druggists, 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH. Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough, and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. Hanneke, the famous mesmerist, of Rhine, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could hardly speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. ROBBINS, Esq., 252 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyon P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

THE FATAL FOG!

Death Stared the Engineers in the Face This Morning, But Our Boys Escaped.

The Fort Wayne iron works are now working a night force.

The Pittsburg shops are engaged in repairing several engines.

There are a lot of gondola cars being built in the Pittsburg shops.

Winfield Lyons, an engineer on the Pittsburg road, is on the sick list.

J. M. McMannus, the tax agent of the Wabash road, was in the city today.

About a dozen of the machinists in the Bass foundry were working last night.

Robt. F. Douglass, the assistant ticket agent of the Wabash, returned from the east to-day.

Daniel King and Andrew Koontz, two well-known firemen on the Pittsburg road, are taking their vacation.

The Muncie railroad shops are rushed with work and a number of new employes have been given positions.

The lights were kept burning in the street cars this morning until after 8 o'clock on account of the dense fog.

The work in the manufacturing establishments of the city is more active this winter than it has been for several years.

The loungers who hang around the Pittsburg depot were locked out of the gentlemen's waiting-room this morning.

Vice President McCullough and other officials of the Pennsylvania railroad, are making a tour of inspection of the road.

James T. ease, of the Wabash freight house, was called to Ossian to-day by telegraph, to attend the funeral of an old friend.

It is considered as probable that the steel workers' scale, formulated by the Amalgamated association, will be signed by the mill owners.

J. M. McCann, of the Grand Rapids road, has been transferred from the foremanship on a freight engine to the same position on a passenger.

F. L. Martin, the general agent of the Cotton Belt railroad, and J. L. Winnett, the general traveling agent of the Wisconsin Central, were in the city today.

Thomas Mulhaney, a switchman of the Lake Shore yards at Toledo, fell from the cars at that place yesterday, and was run over, losing both of his legs.

The new moulding room in the Bass foundry is rushed with work and several men have been transferred from other parts of the shop to that department.

George Saffern, a moulder in the Bass foundry, is rejoicing over the arrival of a bright-eyed little girl at his house and was, in consequence of it, in the best of spirits this morning.

Rumor has it that Dennis McCarty, a popular young clerk in the Wabash freight office, is contemplating matrimony, but Dennis says the rumor is a slander on his fair name.

This was a dangerous morning for the railroad engineer. The fog made it impossible for him to see very far in front of his engine and the danger from collisions was very great.

There have been no promotions of Pittsburg firemen to the positions of engineers made this year. It is probable, however, that several will be made in a few days, and some of the boys are on the anxious seat.

An express and a passenger train dashed together Wednesday morning near Houston, Tex. One of the engineers and a mail agent were injured, but none of the passengers were, as reported, killed or wounded.

Several of the boys in the Pittsburg shops, who were to have been married during the holidays, have postponed that event until later in the season. They say that work is so rushing in the shops that they cannot get a leave of absence for their honeymoon trip.

Mr. O. Carter and his son, Edward, two of the well known employes of the Pittsburg blacksmith shops, are at Valparaiso, having been called there suddenly a week ago by the illness of the wife of the former. The news was received this morning of her death, which took place yesterday. Mrs. Carter lived at Valparaiso, although Mr. Carter and his son have been working here for some time.

Fred Kanning, formerly a machinist in the Pittsburg shops of this city, but now living at St. Louis, Mo., was recently married to Mrs. Elizabeth Stephan, a wealthy lady of this city. The announcement of their marriage in these columns will be news to the many friends of Mr. Kanning in the Pittsburg shops. The happy couple have their home at St. Louis and Mrs. Kanning still retains her valuable Fort Wayne property.

Porter Chamberlain, a well known machinist in the Bass foundry, had two of his fingers badly mashed yesterday afternoon while working around the machinery in the shops. The nail was completely torn from one of his fingers, producing a very painful and ugly wound. The accident will keep him from work for several days. Mr. Chamberlain is one of the oldest machinists in the works, having been employed there for the last twenty years. During the last few years he has been extremely unfortunate, having met in that time with several very bad accidents while at work.

"It is all over town," said the Arab. "What?" asked the old man, his eyebrows bristling with curiosity. "Mail" said the youngster, while his mouth went clear around his ears in a grin. "Right you are," said the old man. "With the mad comes cold and coughs, and you know the remedy." "Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup," rejoined the boy. "Right you are again."

A Genuine Five Stone Cluster Diamond Ring for $1.

Yesterday J. E. Johnson, brakeman Wabash railroad, paid $1 for a can of tea at the Globe Tea & Coffee company, 87 Calhoun street, and on opening the can found a genuine five stone cluster diamond ring, valued at $65; also Lumbard & Schuler, general insurance, 13 East Main street, got a ladies' solid gold hunting case watch in one can and in another a genuine diamond ring, set in solid gold. Mrs. Thomas Wood, Auburn, Ind., and F. E. Dawson, bricklayer, each found gents' solid gold, full jeweled, Egin watches in their cans.

This is only a few of the many who do the same thing every day, only some of them find solid gold watches or ruby and sapphire gems set in solid gold. Those who get up a club order of $10 or $20, always get a valuable prize. Orders by mail promptly filled. The coffee has arrived containing prizes the same as the tea. Price $1 per can, six for $5. Open from 8 a. m. until 9 p. m. Globe Tea and Coffee Co., 87 Calhoun street, Fort Wayne.

W. E. Mossman, the lumber merchant, will erect an elegant new residence next spring on his lot near the west end of Washington street. When finished he will occupy it with his family and rent his present residence.

"What was the demand for flowers this New Year?" was asked of Mr. Will Markey, the florist. "Had all the business we wanted to handle," was the reply. "The demand for roses and high class flowers constantly increases. We can sell all the fine roses we can produce, and sometimes have to buy when there is some unusual call, like a conjunction of weddings, funerals and parties on a particular day or evening. And what is true in our case applies to all the florists here. The prices have not advanced correspondingly, and while they are very moderate for the season, are quite satisfactory on account of large sales. The growing of roses on benches, instead of in pots, as was the practice a few years ago, has improved the quality as well as greatly increased production. Roses are the favorites by a large majority, but there is a moderate call for many other favorites. We don't mind cold weather if it is fair. Cloudy weather hot or cold, is what we despise."

MAKE NO MISTAKE.—If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion and preparation, curative power superior to any other article of the kind before the people. For all affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system it is unequalled. Be sure to get Hood's.

The Babies Cry for It

And the old folks laugh when they find that the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is more easily taken and more beneficial in its action than bitter, nauseous medicines. It strengthens the liver, kidneys, stomach, and bowels, while it arouses them to a healthy activity. For sale by Thieme & Gross.

8 Teen Hundred 80 Eight.

The year just closed has been one of universal prosperity to Fort Wayne business men.

The patronage given our establishment has very largely exceeded any year in the history of our store.

As our people have prospered, from year to year, they have demanded a finer class of goods than ever before, and it has been our aim to furnish these as promptly and as cheaply as the best stores in the largest cities.

With the opening of the new year, we desire to say that with added capital and experience we shall be better prepared in the future than ever before to meet your every want in our lines of merchandise.

Our business will continue to be conducted on the honest, square dealing, one-price system; but that price always the lowest possible penny at which the goods can be afforded. Fort Wayne has long since outgrown the back-woods style of doing business, which consisted chiefly in asking for an article double what it was worth and then wasting an hour or two of time, that wasn't then very valuable, in a struggle between buyer, and seller, to see which could out-jockey the other.

If your prefer to do your trading where your can be certain you will get only the most carefully selected goods, and these always at the lowest possible price, we invite your patronage the coming year, as we have in the years that have past; assuring you no effort will be spared to serve you faithfully and well.

TOM KELLY, of St. Louis, says: Only certain races have contributed champions to the prize ring. The general public don't suspect it, but nevertheless the Jews have supplied their quota. There was Dutch Sam, a first-class man in his day, and Daniel Mendoza was anything but a slouch. Later we have the Lazarus and Aaron families, and others whom I do not recollect. Nobody ever heard of a German or French pugilist. The Germans and the French can become good fencers, but when it comes down to fist fighting they have no heart, or, as we say in sporting circles, no bottom. Sullivan is certainly the strongest man that ever shied a castor in a ring, but Jem Mace, in his day, was the greatest artist."

THE Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby has been the pastor of the Fourth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York, for twenty-five years. Dr. Crosby comes of an old and wealthy Knickerbocker family, and was born in New York sixty-one years ago. He began his professional life as a professor of Greek, and was one of the founders of the New York Greek Club. There is no more public-spirited citizen than Dr. Crosby, and none who has more enemies or more friends. He is an active member of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, and is a champion of the temperance, but not the prohibition movement. In appearance Dr. Crosby looks the scholar that he is. His forehead is strikingly high and full, and the expression of his eyes that of intelligence and benevolence. He wears his face clean-shaven save for a pair of mutton-chop whiskers. Dr. Crosby is particularly fond of the sun, and no day seems to warm for him. He may be seen in July walking on the sunny side of the street with his hat off, fairly reveling in the tropical heat. In the winter Dr. Crosby lives in New York, but in the summer he goes to Pine Hill, in the Catskills, where he has recently bought a house.

No home should be without it to arrest disorders promptly, which, if not taken in season often develop into serious diseases. Rev. James M. Roltins, pastor M. E. church, S., Fairfield, Va., writes: "I have used Simmons Liver Regulator for many years, having made it my only family medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it. It is a safe, good and reliable medicine for any disorder of the system and if used in time is a great preventive of sickness."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins by grocers, labeled thus:

are Kidney and Liver diseases, and when once they have secured a firm hold on the human system there is no time to be lost if life is to be saved. Many remedies have been tried, but none have been so successful as Ath-le-pho-ros. Many unsolicited testimonials have proved that Ath-le-pho-ros has cured these diseases when physicians and all other remedies had failed. Backache, pain in the side, dullness, weariness, and headache, are often symptoms of these fearful diseases. Athlephoros, in connection with Athlephoros Pills, will give speedy relief. Daily Sentinel

FRIDAY, JAN. 6, 1888.

THE CITY NEWS.

The sleighing did not last long.

January is one of the longest months in the year.

Capt. Henry McKinnie went to Columbus, Ohio, this morning.

The year commencing Sunday will have 366 days and fifty-three Sundays.

Rev. L. H. Murlin, who has been visiting at Holgate for the last few days, has returned.

This year has 366 days and the girls have the privilege of making the proposals of marriage.

Forepaugh's show was at Los Angeles, Cal., during the holidays, so Cal Rieman writes to this city.

Mrs. Fairbanks, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Newell, of Massachusetts, who have been spending the holidays with Mrs. C. D. Newell, of Douglas avenue, have returned to their homes.

You'll be surprised to see the rushing business done by Sam, Pete & Max; but when you consider they are selling off their large and magnificent stock at cost, no further explanation is required.

Dr. M. F. Porter is on the sick list.

Harry Hanna went to Cleveland, O., this morning.

Bert Foster is considerably improved and now sits up most of the time.

Mr. John Lillie left to-day for Kankakee, Ill., to join Mrs. Lillie, who is visiting there.

The new folding bed company have sold a number of their beds for use in the Wayne hotel.

Counterfeit $20 bills, finely executed and purporting to have been issued by the First National bank of Indianapolis, are in circulation.

The Thalonian and Philalathean Literary societies will hold their regular literary entertainment, at the Methodist college building this evening.

The gravel pits near Rome City will soon be opened, as the track leading from the Grand Rapids and Indiana main line is about finished.

The Morton club elects officers next Monday evening. Judge Chapin is among those mentioned for the presidency. President Bursley believes in rotation in office and therefore refuses a re-election.

General Carnahan states 10,000, and probably 15,000 Uniformed Knights will be in line in Cincinnati during the session of the supreme lodge, the second week in June. At the last session, held in Toronto, 4,000 Uniformed Knights were in line.

Something should be done with "Fort Hettler," as it is humorously called, next spring. It is an outrage on the Hamiltons and other property holders to have the incompleted reservoir remain any more years in its present unsightly and disgraceful condition.

At the annual meeting of the American Humane association, recently held in Rochester, N. Y., reports from the various state societies were read and showed the work, so far as it had been pushed, to be in an encouraging condition. Indiana, however, was not represented, and to her shame be it said, was classed as a part of the missionary field of the association.

Charley Comparet knows who to tie to and this item from the Garrett Clipper indicates his position: "Mr. Comparet tells us that Judge McClellan, of Auburn, is the strongest candidate for congress in the district outside of O'Rourke. He says McClellan has lots of backers in Fort Wayne and vicinity."

Messrs. Cal Rieman and J. S. Koller, who left this city some time ago for Pasadena, Cal., have formed a partnership in the real estate business at that place and they advertise their business very extensively in the Pasadena and Los Angeles papers. We are glad to hear they are both doing well in their new western homes.

The owner of ticket 981 will be presented with the fine top buggy, by Messrs. Sam Pete & Max, if presented before March 1, 1888, after which date the alternates Nos. 1,136, 1,896 and 403 will be entitled to the prize in their order. d&wtf

Miss Lizzie Huntsberger, of Harrisburg, Pa., is in the city visiting friends.

There have been four births at the county infirmary since New Years day.

Miss Lou Kendrick left this morning for an extended visit among friends at Englewood, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Coppernoll have returned from Michigan, where they spent the holidays.

The D. N. Foster Furniture Co., secures the contract for chairs for the new Wayne hotel.

The Pennington machine company has outgrown its present quarters and it is not unlikely it will rent Mr. P. A. Randall's building next door when rebuilt and thus greatly increase it facilities.

The family of Mr. F. P. Randall have transferred their household furniture to the present unoccupied house of Mrs. Hanna, which they will make their home until the damage to their house can be repaired.

Mr. Louis Wolf, the enterprising dry goods and carpet man of our city, returned last night from the east, where he sojourned several weeks looking for bargains in his line. The little man looks well.

The Catholic fair at Avilla, last week, was a success financially and otherwise. One of the most interesting contests was that between John W. Smith and John Gill, of Albion, for a gold headed cane. The gentlemen did not take much interest in the contest, but their friends did considerable hustling. The vote resulted in Mr. Smith being awarded the prize. The vote standing 265 to 168.

A special telegram from Washington says that "Civil Service Commissioner Edgerton attended recently a performance in this city of 'Nancy and Company.' He said that sixty years ago on that day he had seen at Albany, N. Y., Mrs. Madee, a member of that company, play the part of 'Lady Teasle.' Mr. Edgerton said he called on Mrs. Madee at her hotel, and she told him that she was now seventy-seven years of age, and that she expected to remain on the stage until she died. She told him that she knew of no one now alive, with the exception of himself, who had seen her act so many years ago."

There are no daily papers in the Twelfth congressional district outside of Fort Wayne, and this city issues five daily newspapers, four English and one German. Politically they stand three democratic and two republican. Of weekly papers Steuben county has two, LaGrange county four, DeKalb county, seven, Noble county six, Whitley county two and Allen county six, making twenty-seven in all. These are about evenly divided between the two old parties, except one in this city representing the greenback and labor party. There are also other papers in several of the smaller towns, independent in politics.

Think of it! You can now buy for $4 and $5 a superb blue chinchilla overcoat, (men's sizes), one-half the former price at the great Sam, Pete and Max removal sale.

The Bluffton Times says: "Dr. J. W. Younge, of Fort Wayne, was in the city this morning, in the interest of prohibition. The doctor tells us that the next issue of the Tribune, his prohibition paper, will stir up the natives in the church, law and medicine. Dr. Swearingen's articles will also appear."

There will be two eclipses of the moon and three of the sun during the year 1888. A total eclipse of the moon will occur on Saturday, the 28th inst., which will be visible throughout the United States. The moon will enter the earth's shadow at 3:31 p. m. The total phase will begin an hour later, or 4:31 and end at 6:06, while the moon will leave the shadow and the obscuration end at 7:09. It will be a very beautiful sight, provided the weather is clear.
